FOREWORD

The data book presents official statistical information on prices in the Republic of Belarus for 2020 – 2025.

The data book is based on data collected by state statistics agencies through the recording (method of collection) of prices (tariffs) by sector specialists and those received from enterprises and organisations through state sample statistical surveys.

The data book comprises official statistical information on the level and dynamics of prices (tariffs) in the consumer market, producer prices in industry, construction, agriculture, prices (tariffs) of transport and communication services, characterizing the socio-economic development of the Republic of Belarus. Selected macroeconomic indicators are provided.

In several cases the data are provisional and are subject to revision in further issues.
